

VOLUNTEER at THE HIDEOUT'S 11th ANNUAL
BLOCK PARTY and HELP LITERACY WORKS
Saturday, September 20th & Sunday, September 21st

Once again The Hideout's Block Party is going to be a blast!

This year's headliners include Neko Case and The New Pornographers, with other acts coming from near and far. Come experience the music of Plastic People of the Universe from the Czech Republic; Vieux Farka Toure from Mali; Dan le Sac vs. Scroobius Pip from the UK; Monotonix from Israel; Chicago's own Robbie Fulks and Devil in a Woodpile ...and that's just to name a few!

VOLUNTEER at THE HIDEOUT!

- Get free admission to the party the day you volunteer
- Receive 3 free beer tickets
- Volunteer 3-4 hours
- *Meet new people, enjoy the music, and help LITERACY WORKS!

VOLUNTEER to be a TEAM LEADER and the PERKS ARE EVEN BETTER!

- Get a free two day pass
- Have the chance to visit the Hospitality Tent all day. There will be free beer and a place to sit and relax
- Volunteer for a 6 hour shift (10:30-4:30 or 4:30-10:30)
- *Meet new people, enjoy the music, and help LITERACY WORKS!

To volunteer please contact Pat Lee at pat_lee@comcast.net
Be sure to mention that you are volunteering on behalf of Literacy Works

To learn more about The Hideout Block Party visit www.hideoutchicago.com

To learn more about Literacy Works visit www.litworks.org

To learn more about the other organizations benefiting from the block party

Check out Tuesday's Child at www.tuesdayschild.org; Thomas Drummond

Elementary School at www.drummondschool.org; Oscar Mayer Magnet School

www.mayer.cps.k12.il.us

Literacy Works' mission is to fulfill the promise of a basic human right: the right to read, write, and interpret the world.